Can GCh Am BISS Ch Liska Shadows In The Moonlight

Many, many thanks again to Tracy , who took Lyric to Oregon for a weekend and got her looking pretty spiffy before leaving home. At the Pacific NWSSC specialties on the Friday, Alexzandra Erb showed Lyric to BW for a 4 point major in the morning under breeder-judge Donny Ni, then WB for a 5 point major in the afternoon under breeder-judge Daniel Wheatcroft. The next two days at Clackamas Kennel Club all-breed shows, the Sheltie judging was considered a PNWSSC designated specialty, and Tracy was back on the lead with Lyric. On Saturday Lyric was Best of Breed and Group 2nd to finish with another 5 point major. On Sunday she was again Best of Breed to start collecting points towards an American GrCh. I sent her for one more weekend with Alex, four specialties of the Emerald Empire SSC. Lyric was SB at three, and BB under breeder-judge Roderick Thompson. She now has 20 points, 4 majors, needing only 5 singles to finish the American GrCh. She'll have to wait until next year as she has other plans.

Back in Canada, expertly presented by Shannon Scheer and Alana Smith , Lyric finished her Grand Championship by going BB at NACA on the Friday. After that, at NACA and EKC, she earned 30 points towards her GrCh Bronze, winning a few Bests of Breed including a Group 3rd, a few BOS, and several Selects. At our SSFC specialty, Lyric was Select Bitch under breeder-judge Judy Kelsey.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

That's a wrap on another year of competition! Congratulations to all who enjoyed the hard earned success, and the unplanned botches, of well spent time with your beloved dogs.

This coming January is the start of a new executive term for 2025/2026. Our thanks to outgoing executive team members Yvonne Halkow, Hanna Campbell, Norma Jeanne Pohl and Anne Brazeau, for your contribution to the CSSA and it's members.

Our newest executive team members are Evelyn Susin - Membership, Charlotte Edmunds – Secretary, Marcia Haw – Alberta Regional Director, and Christian Attong - Ontario North/East & Quebec Regional Director. We look forward to working together on the behalf of CSSA members and Sheltie fanciers to the benefit of Canadian Shelties.

Membership renewals are due as of December 31, 2024. You can find detailed information elsewhere in the newsletter. On a one-off basis, forgiveness may be given for late renewals when paying by cheque only. All electronic payment forms are excluded from late payment forgiveness.

As the daylight dwindles on another calendar year, I wish you all health, happiness and joyous celebration in 2024, and all the best ribbons in 2025!

Cathy

CSSA CODE OF ETHICS

CSSA Fanciers Inc (the Canadian Shetland Sheepdog Association) considers these as guidelines for ethical dog-related practices in the areas of breeding, buying, selling and exhibiting the Shetland Sheepdog. Membership in this Association assumes a responsibility above and beyond the requirements set out in the By-Laws and Code of Ethics.

1. Members shall promote friendship and cooperation among breeders, owners, and exhibitors of Shetland Sheepdogs and assist them for the benefit of the breed.
2. Members shall not speak on behalf of the Canadian Shetland Sheepdog Association unless granted permission by its Executive.
3. Members shall strive to educate, or direct toward resources that can educate, any novice owner who wishes to become involved with breeding and/or showing of the breed.
4. Members shall be familiar with and agree to abide by all Canadian Kennel Club rules and regulations including registration of litters, individual dogs, transfers of ownership and maintenance of accurate records of breeding, pedigrees, and sales.
5. Members shall not sell or supply any dogs or stud services/brood matrons to pet stores, wholesalers, raffles, lotteries, auctions, flea markets, laboratories (unless sanctioned by the CSSA) or as give-away prizes.
6. Members shall not place their own dogs using a Rescue Service.
7. Members shall provide adequate shelter, nutrition, socialization, veterinary care and exercise for their dogs. They shall also make sure that their dogs are maintained in a safe and sanitary environment.
8. Members shall word advertisements so as not to be misleading or misrepresent themselves or their dogs.
9. The overall objective of a member's breeding program shall be to meet the Canadian Kennel Club's standard for the Shetland Sheepdog, and to produce happy, healthy puppies with good temperaments, whether for pet, performance or show. Whenever possible, all breeding stock shall be screened prior to breeding for genetic disorders commonly found in the breed.
10. Breeders shall consider the age, health, and length of time from the bitch's last litter before they breed and shall determine if there is adequate time available to properly socialize new puppies. No bitch should be bred before she has reached twelve months of age, and at breeders discretion not after her eighth birthday,
11. Breeders shall do their best to see that any dog discharged from their care will go to a home that will adequately provide for the health and welfare for the dog, and shall be discriminating in the placement of breeding stock.
12. All contracts, agreements, and guarantees shall be in writing and include all terms agreed upon by the parties at the time of signing. When placing a pet quality dog, a Non-Breeding Agreement should be used. All terms of any signed agreement, contract, or guarantee shall be honoured in full
13. Breeders shall provide purchasers with written details as to the care and welfare of the dog. Permanent identification of dogs, a record of vaccination and a litter pedigree shall accompany each dog before it leaves the premises. It is recommended that puppies shall not be placed before 8 weeks of age, and until having initial immunization.
14. Members shall accept full responsibility for their breeding practices and shall take back any of their dogs whose owner can no longer care for the dog, or shall assist in re-homing said dog, or shall provide financial support to a CSSA recognized Rescue Organization.
15. Failure to abide by this Code of Ethics, and upon proof of such failure, shall result in immediate suspension of CSSA privileges and/or possible termination of membership.

BC/Yukon Director's Report - Esther Hall

Not much news from B.C., but we do have a brag from Susie Carbert, Congrats Susie and enjoy everyone. Happy Holidays to all our members and a prosperous New Year!

Madselin Shelties - Susan Carbert

Here at Madselin we finished 3 Champions this year with some nice wins.

GCH Amberlyn's Blu Cascade "Cade"

Ch Madselin Manuscript "Moné"

Ch Madselin Summer Sunshine "Chorus"

All were handled by and co-owned with Arlene Hayes. Madselin Evening Breeze did some nice winning too. She received 2 - BBPIS, a reserve and BP at the regional in Winnipeg, and a Best in Match and Best Puppy in Match in Kelowna. Chorus had a litter of 8 puppies and Moné had a litter of 3, all sired by Cade.

Our little gang of 5 did very well this year.

That's it for the year! All the best in 2025.

Esther Hall

Saskatchewan Director's Report - Donna Lewis

Saskatchewan shelties have been busy this year with many events, showing in Conformation shows, running in Sprinter trials, running courses in Agility trials and Herding trials, showing their skills in Obedience and Rally Trials and helping Junior handlers show off their skills! Shelties can do it all!

Congratulations to all our Saskatchewan Sheltie breeders and owners/ trainers who have had many successes this year so far.

Congratulations to everyone who attended the CSSA National this year in Winnipeg Manitoba. I try to get to a National when I can and this year was one I attended. Great location great judges great dogs and just an all round good time. Thanks WASSA and CSSA for hosting this event! The Banquet was delish! and lots of fun! Thanks to everyone who attended the CSSA bi annual meeting. It's nice to see a good attendance from across Canada.

Joyce Baker and I attended the National this year and made some great memories with our Shelties. So many beautiful Shelties attended it was a pleasure to see them strut their stuff!

We entered the Breed ring with our Specials, Tyra and Wicca, our Veteran Jasmine and our almost perfectly matched brace Liam and Wicca and the Rally and Obedience Ring with Swaizy and Liam and had a great time! It was nice to meet people who are friends on face book and to see old friends of many years. The judges were awesome! Very nice people and we enjoyed being in their rings. Thanks to everyone who had nice comments to say about our dogs. We did come home with some beautiful Rosettes and nice prizes.

A Big congratulations to our own Brooke Fitzpatrick and her Sheltie Levi winning Best Overall Junior Obedience Handler at the Canadian National Juniors Finals this year! They are a wonderful team to watch!

Also congratulations to Barb Selbys 9 yr old niece Toni Saulnier for representing Saskatchewan at the Canadian Junior Handling Nationals!

We also welcome our newest Junior to Saskatchewan, Dane Edge Oborowsky born to Jenna Cruthers and Steve Oborowsky in September. Welcome Dane!

Live each day to the fullest with a smile 😊
